Kimber's Men

(www.kimbersmen.com)

Audiences everywhere rave over the harmonies of Kimber's Men. They have appeared at Festivals in Ostende, Appingedam, Portsoy, Fano in Denmark, and all over the UK. Last year they headlined at the first ever international shanty festival at Albany in Australia and featured twice on Channel 4's Sunday Brunch. They also starred in the BBC production of Sea Songs, with Gareth Malone, the most viewed programme of the year.

Monkey's Fist

(www.facebook.com/www.monkeysfistshanty.co.uk)

Monkey's Fist are a trio from Sheffield and Leeds who formed back in 2000 to sing sea shanties, forebitters and songs of the sea both traditional and contemporary. Since then they have gone from strength to strength and from the UK to Ireland, Holland and Germany. They sing a cappella with harmony but also with guitar, concertina, harmonica and bodhran accompaniment.

Muldoon's Picnic

(www.muldoonspicnic.org.uk)

Muldoon's Picnic are a vocal harmony group based in Glasgow. They sing unaccompanied songs from the sublime to the ridiculous, taking in folk-song, world music, and of course shanties. Their speciality is original arrangements of traditional melodies from around the world, presented with a sense of fun that has won hearts throughout the UK: "interesting harmonies sung with honest skill" ... "compelling listening".
